Fire Chief Named Canister Chairman

Fire Chief Flavil Robertson of the Murray Fire Department, Murray, Ky., is serving as Canister Chairman during the 1963 Annual Appeal for Muscular Dystrophy.

In accepting the responsibility of distributing the hour glass canisters in stores and businesses Chief Robertson said, "Muscular Dystrophy is a chronic, non-contagious disease, characterized by a progressively more severe wasting of the voluntary muscles. The victim becomes increasingly helpless in doing even the simple things of life—walking, eating, picking up a toy, even breathing, sometimes. No one knows exactly what causes MD. Its course cannot be reversed—nor even arrested."

Research is expensive, of course, and MDA began on a modest budget, offering to finance, through grants-in-aid, promising work in muscular dystrophy and related problems, to find the cause and cure for this tragic disease.

Muscular Dystrophy Association of America, Inc. has built and maintains the Institute for Muscle Disease in New York City, in addition to supporting over 100 grants in this country and abroad. They have come a long way since 1950 and it is through your help that these programs can be continued.

Chief Robertson further added, "For these reasons it is important that our Canister Campaign be highly successful and only you can make this possible by dropping your contribution in an hour glass."

Civic Music Members May Attend Concert In Martin

The Rondellers Male Trio, which has been touring the United States during the past four years, will stop in Martin, Tennessee on Tuesday, October 29, to open the Mutual Concert Series there at 8:00 p. m. in the UTMB Music Building Auditorium. Their program, a unique and varied one made up of art songs, operatic selections, show tunes, folk songs and Negro spirituals, is open to members of the Mutual Concert Association and members of the Murray Civic Music Association, as well as to UTMB and Murray State College students.

The three singers, outstanding soloists individually, are headed by Edmond Karkrud, the distinguished Bass-Baritone, who has a record of over 900 professional concert appearances—covering 48 states, Mexico, and all the provinces of Canada—a record which is probably unequalled by any singer his age.

He has appeared on NBC, CBS, ABC and Dument TV networks as a soloist, and was recently seen on the Bell Telephone TV show. He is a graduate of the University of Minnesota and the Juilliard School of Music, and widely known not only as a soloist but as the organizer and guiding force behind other popular vocal ensembles such as The Men of Song Quartet, The Concertman, The New York Sextet, and The Karlrud Choral.

Paul Solem, tenor, has appeared with such distinguished orchestras and chamber opera groups as the New York Pro Musica, The Bach Aria Group, and the American Opera Society. He has appeared as soloist the last four seasons with the Baroque Festival at Brooklyn College, was recently heard at Carnegie Recital Hall in a program (Continued on Page 3)

Senator Logan Will Speak Here Saturday

Senator Rex Logan, Democrat from Bowling Green, Kentucky, will speak at the Calloway County courthouse on Saturday October 26 at 11:00 a. m., according to Don Robinson, Chairman for the United Democrats for Nunn.

Logan will speak in the interest of Louie B. Nunn, Republican candidate for Governor. The public is invited to attend.

Importance Of Education Is Meeting Topic

Dr. Viola Hansen stressed the importance of education in her discussion of "Woman's Role in Today's World" presented at the annual meeting of the Calloway County Homemakers Club held at the Woman's Club House on Wednesday.

The speaker said that in a survey made in Louisville that only two families who received state aid were high school graduates. She encouraged each homemaker to check to see if there was a high school dropout in her community and see why and what could be done to get the person to return to school. She said she was impressed with the small percentage of dropouts in Calloway County and complimented the ladies on the 4-H Club report given and said that this county meeting was the only one in the large number she has attended over the state in which the 4-H work was even mentioned.

Miss Hansen who has traveled over one million miles by air contrasted the many changes that have been made in travel, work and play and challenged the ladies to be alert to the changes to make them for good than for bad. She said we should look to the youth to stabilize the nation and be ready to help them in any way.

Mrs. Kenon Branch, president, presided and introduced Mrs. Hansen who is chairman of the Homemakers Extension Dept. of the University of Kentucky.

A dress review was held by the 4-H Teen Club with Miss Kathleen Madrey as narrator. Models were Mesdames Marsha Hendon, Carolyn Murdock, Cynthia Ezell, Beverly Goode, Nancy Scull, and Carolyn Orvis.

Models for the Homemakers dress review were Mesdames Johnny Orr, Fiddy Beane, Joe Hal Starks, Bernard Tubers, Alfred Taylor, Elsie Paschall, Clifton Jones, and Max Parley, with the latter being the narrator. Miss Marsha Hendon was pianist.

Mrs. Barletta Wrathe, home demonstration agent, had as the theme for her discussion, "What's in 'Thy Hand'," in which she listed the three keys of opportunity, responsibility, and achievement as the best guide to follow in the homemaker's life.

Elected as vice-president was Mrs. Clifford Smith who succeeds Mrs. Holmes Dunn, who has served for two years. Special music was by Mrs. John Winter as accompanist.

Reports were given by Mrs. Van Burnett, publicity; Mrs. Bern Truett, reading; Mrs. Charlie Crawford, citizenship; Mrs. Ernest Madrey, membership; Mrs. Glen Kelo, main lesson; Mrs. Gene Cole, major lesson; Mrs. Earl Adams, nominating.

Group singing was led by Mrs. Glen Sims with Mrs. Glen Kelo as the piano. Miss Erin Montgomery, secretary-treasurer, gave her reports and called the roll.

Seventy-eight persons were present.

KENNEDY VS. ROCKEFELLER (?)

ACCORDING to "authoritative" sources in Washington which are still getting their messages through the "managed news" curtain operated by most federal bureaus, the only hope President Kennedy has for getting any electoral votes south of the Mason and Dixon Line in 1964 is for the G.O.P. to make the mistake of nominating Governor Nelson Rockefeller.

These authorities go a step further in expressing the opinion that Senator Barry Goldwater is the only contender for the Republican nomination who could carry all Southern states. Any other candidate the G.O.P. may name could not be expected to get as many Southern votes.

Democrats are openly boasting in the last issue of "News Week" Magazine, however, that the Kennedys are quite willing to sacrifice all Southern states, which accounted for 64 million Kennedy votes in 1960, because his foreign aid, civil rights, medicare and anti-monopoly policies, plus his fight on organized crime, will gain eleven million former Nixon votes in all other parts of the nation and that, of course, would result in his re-election by a landslide.

If this theorizing is sound the Kennedy family could well afford to invest more funds to induce the Republicans to nominate Rockefeller than to spend so much on a member of the family now occupying the White House. For nobody can possibly help the President more than Rockefeller, as his speeches so definitely indicate.

In a farewell fund-raising dinner in New York before taking off on a tour of Western States, the New York governor deliberately wrote off "George Wallace's Alabama" and "Ross Barnett's Mississippi" by declaring he will oppose state's rights to an even greater extent than the Kennedys have done. And millions in the North, Mid-West and Far West would certainly rather vote for Kennedy's reelection than the more liberal millionaire Governor of New York, a man less known throughout the nation and the world than the former Governor of Illinois, Adlai Stevenson, whom the Democrats tried twice to get elected.

1963 Was A Season Of Quiet Heroes

By FRED DOWN

UPI Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — The 1963 major league baseball season of quiet heroes.

Sophisticated Sandy Koufax won National League pitcher of the year and major league comeback of the year honors... silent Walter Alston was voted the National League's manager of the year... and now urban, retiring Vaughan Bing Devine is the United Press International's major league executive of the 1963 season.

Devine was voted the award today by 24 baseball experts representing every city in the majors.

He received 10 of the votes cast by the 24 experts with eight going to E. J. Buzzie Bavasi of the Los Angeles Dodgers and two each to John Quinn of the Philadelphia Phillies, Ed Short of the Chicago White Sox and Jim Campbell of the Detroit Tigers.

Remains In Background
Devine has been general manager of the St. Louis Cardinals since 1957 but there are still many baseball fans who wouldn't know him if they fell over him in the bleachers. That's partly because he insists on remaining in the background.

But he's a well-known G. M. to his brothers in the business—so much so, in fact, that many of 'em hesitate to answer the phone when they hear Bing is on the line to discuss trades. With good reason, too. Because the fact of the matter is that Devine's astute trades over the last six years have been largely instrumental in returning the Cardinals to their position as a pennant threat that they occupied in the glory years of the 1920's and 1940's.

Builds With Trades
To build the 1963 Cardinals, Devine used brilliant trading acumen to acquire second baseman Julian Javier and shortstop Dick Groat from the Pittsburgh Pirates, pitcher Ernie Broglio and first baseman Bill White from the Giants, outfielder Curt Flood from the Cincinnati Reds and outfielder George Altman from the Chicago Cubs.

An organization man since 1959, Devine sees himself as the "balance wheel—not the big wheel"—of the Cardinal organization.

It's an attitude that paid off this year in the Cardinals' sudden rise to pennant contention and in Devine's rise to the top of the heap of major league baseball executives.

Navy Is A Model Of Consistency

NEW YORK (AP) — Navy continues to be a model of consistent among the inconsistent. While three team offense leads changed hands this week, the Middles continued to pace the national major football teams in total offense, a lead they've held all season.

Two weeks ago, Navy lead in three departments; last week they were tops in two; now it's down to one—and a precarious lead at that. Wichita rushed up from fifth place to challenge the Middles, whose total offense lead has dwindled to a mere 1.8 yards-per-game. Other leaders in NCAA Service Bureau statistics released today are Nebraska in rushing, Baylor in passing offense and Utah State in scoring.

Wichita also moved up from ninth to the runner-up spot in passing, while last week's leader, Tulsa, dropped to fourth. Baylor, third last week, made the top spot thanks to defending passing champion Don Trull, who has accounted for all of his team's completions and air yardage.

Utah State dumped Navy from the scoring lead with a 62-6 thumping of Montana Saturday. The Utes now have averaged 37 points in five games and things aren't scheduled to change.

Nebraska took over the rushing lead from Syracuse, which dropped to second. Up from practically nowhere not in the third spot is Army, which rolled up a season-high 501 yards in Saturday's 47-0 rout of Wake Forest.

STAUTNER INJURED

IT'S A TWITER—Tommy Harper and Chica Gray share a sweater built for two in Austin, Tex. It's called a twiter, and they say, is a new fad. With two sleeves, two turtle-necks and one middle armhole, it stimulates togetherness.

Austin Peay Quarterback Is Honored

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — A gritty little quarterback from last-place Austin Peay and a rugged end and linebacker from Western Kentucky's league leaders were honored today as the players of the week in the Ohio Valley Conference.

Singled out as "Back of the Week" was Austin's 150-pound signal caller, Carlton Platt, who accounted for 117 yards—40 by rushing and 77 by passing—as the Governors battled Morehead to an unexpectedly close 7-0 decision. Platt also recorded four tackles and six assists on defense.

Lineman of the Week in the OVC was Western's John Mutchler, a former center who transferred from Kentucky to the Hilltop campus and now plays end or tackle on offense and backs up the line defensively.

Playing with a severely rashed foot against Tennessee Tech, Mutchler caught a pass for 34 yards, and was credited with eight tackles and seven assists.

NEWS for truck owners who need a new one now

Things Chevrolet has developed since the last time you bought to give you more for your money:

Double-wall construction. This feature of Chevrolet trucks and the Fleetside pickup body has two advantages. Insulation and sound-deadening material is sandwiched between the two layers of steel in the cab to give you more comfort; in the body, the lower inner wall acts as a buffer against load damage, preserving the outer appearance of the truck.

Suspension to fit the truck. Conventional half- and three-quarter-ton models have independent front suspension with variable rate coils in the rear. Variable rate coils do not "bottom out" as readily.

Mediums and heavies have I-beam suspension with variable-rate leaf springs. It automatically stiffens as the load increases—and vice versa. It means a smoother, flatter ride regardless of load, a better handling truck.

The right engine. Chevrolet never has been in better position to give you the type and size you need for maximum efficiency. Today there are many different capacities of gasoline and diesel

Chevrolet truck engines—four's, six's, V8's.

Stronger frames. Every conventional 1964 Chevrolet truck has a ladder-type frame. This type is more resilient, better able to give with the load and terrain. Its simple design also makes it easier to mount special bodies on the truck. Its riveted steel rails are stronger.

Greater model selection. This time you're going to find it a simple matter to pick the exact type of Chevrolet truck for the kind of work you do. In delivery trucks, for instance, in addition to regular panels and pickups, we have eleven different sizes of ready-made walk-in vans, some with full-width rear doors.

Quality and value. Chevrolets today are a lot more truck than your money bought the last time, and yet the price tag is just about the same as 5 or 6 years ago. Call your Chevrolet dealer for information or for a demonstration.

Miss Patricia Ann Key Becomes Bride Of
Charles Stephen Knott In Church Ceremony

MR. AND MRS. CHARLES STEPHEN KNOTT

Miss Patricia Ann Key, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Key, became the bride of Charles Stephen Knott, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Knott, in a candlelight ceremony at the Sinking Spring Baptist Church on Sunday, September 22, at three o'clock in the afternoon.

The Rev. Ralph McConnell, of Louisville performed the ceremony. The Rev. Norman Culpepper led the prayer.

The vows and rings were exchanged before a bridal arch with a wedding bell. The arch was entwined with tube roses, gladioli, and greenery with supporting arrangements of white gladioli and tube roses. Seven branched candelabras completed the decorations.

The candles were lighted by Tommy Key, brother of the bride, and Jerry Key of Paducah, cousin of the bride.

Proceeding the ceremony a program of nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Bert Taylor, organist, and Gus Robertson Jr., soloist. Mrs. Taylor played "I Love You Truly," "He," "Liebestraum," and the traditional wedding marches for the processional and recessional. The soloist sang "Oh Promise Me," "Because," and "The Lord Bless You and Keep You."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a full length gown of white lace bodice with a scoop neckline. The back was fastened with self covered buttons as were the long fitted lace sleeves pointed over the wrists. The neckline was accented with scallops of lace trimmed with iridescent sequins and seed pearls. The full skirt was of white bridal satin with unpressed pleats. Her finger tip veil of silk illusion was attached to a pearl and sequin tiara.

She carried a cascade bouquet of tube roses centered with a white orchid caught with showers of white bridal ribbon tied in lovers knots placed on a white Bible, a gift of Mrs. Obara Miller.

Mrs. Robert Hill, cousin of the bride, was the matron of honor. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Nelson Key and Miss Genevieve Humphreys, cousin of the bride.

The attendants were identically attired in mint green cotton sateen models designed with scooped neckline with fitted bodice. The very full skirts had bustle backs accented with self roses. The short mint green tulle veils were held in place by a halo of roses. They also had matching shoes and white gloves, which were gifts of the bride.

The matron of honor carried a with puffs of gold net. The bridesmaids carried bouquets of yellow carnations with puffs of yellow net.

Miss Tammy Barnes of Paris, Tenn., cousin of the groom, and Miss Glenda Baker, cousin of the bride, were flower girls. Their frocks were identical mint green with over aprons of white organdy. They carried baskets filled with rose petals. The ring bearers were Bobby Allen Hill and Charles Graves Baker, both cousins of the bride.

Nelson Key was the best man for Mr. Knott. The ushers were Tommy Key, brother of the bride, Danny Key of Lexington, cousin of the bride, Jerry Key of Paducah, and Robert Hill.

Mrs. Key chose to wear for her daughter's wedding a champagne brocade two piece taffeta frock, pink hat, and brown accessories. Her corsage was of green cymbidium orchids.

The groom's mother was attired in a blue frock with black accessories and a corsage of pink cymbidium orchids.

Following the ceremony the reception was held in the social hall of the church with Mrs. D. T. Humphreys, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Rex Diaguid in charge.

The bride's table was overlaid with an heirloom table cloth and centered with an arrangement of flamed marigolds. The tiered wedding cake and punch bowl completed the appointment.

Assisting in the serving were Miss Debbie Kuykendall, Miss Paula Cook, Miss Judy Dalton, and Mrs. Jackie Butterworth. Miss Cindy Humphreys and Miss Lavetta Erwin attended the register. Mrs. Bert Taylor presented the music for the reception.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Knott left for a wedding trip of undisclosed location. She wore a three piece navy and white knit costume with red accessories. Her flowers were her wedding bouquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Knott are residing on Murray Route Four.

Out of town guests were Mrs. D. T. Humphreys of Louisville, Danny Key of Lexington, Mr. and Mrs. Oris Key and son, Jerry, of Paducah, Mrs. Sherrie Barnes and children of Paris, Tenn., Mr. and Mrs. Zelnar Orr, Mr. and Mrs. Ewell Orr and son, Randy, Mrs. Hoyt Miller and Jackie, all of Puyar, Tenn., and Miss Marilyn Wheeler of Paducah.

Dear Abby...

REPORT IT, OR SHARE THE GUILT!

Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: This isn't the type of letter you usually get, but maybe you can do something about it. Every night a gang of neighborhood teen-age punks search for, and find, poor stray kittens and cats. They torment these poor animals by sticking needles into them, breaking their eggs and burning them alive. They even give kittens to large dogs to chew and maul. I have seen them, and so have others. Everybody complains, but nobody does anything about it. I am willing to do anything I can to stop them. Where do I start?

MRS. B.

DEAR MRS. B.: You start by calling the police—and you don't stop there. You also call the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (S.P.C.A.). Anyone who has knowledge of such cruelty and neglect to report it, shares the guilt with the tormentors.

DEAR ABBY: I have been divorced for nine years. I met a man at work (also divorced) and we have been seeing each other for six months. As I am writing this, I am in the hospital recuperating from my second cancer operation. This man really worships me and insists on getting married right away. I have explained the whole thing about my operations, but he says it makes no difference. All he wants is to marry me and take care of me. I love him very much. We are both in our early fifties. Do you think I would be doing wrong in marrying him? I want an honest answer.

BORROWED TIME
DEAR BORROWED TIME: Marry him. And enjoy as much time together as the Lord allows.

DEAR ABBY: Half the time I don't get a chance to read the newspapers, but I always save them to wrap potato and onion peelings in. I want you to know that I never throw garbage on a paper until I make sure I've read your column. I wish I could talk to the mother of the little boy who bit the dentist. Remember? Then the dentist sent his nurse out to tell that mother to take her kid to another dentist next time. My mother raised six of us kids by what she called the "Three B's" system: "Bust their behinds with a board!" That's the way I'm raising mine, and I must admit—it works.

MYRTLE

CONFIDENTIAL TO CONFUSED IN NORFOLK, VA.: Don't expect your friends to give you any helpful advice with that problem. They will only tell you what they think you want to hear. Talk it over with your clergyman.

What's on your mind? For a personal reply, send a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, Box 3365, Beverly Hills, Calif.
